

Irena Kolaj Ristanović

Review of Development of Oriental Studies on the Territory of Former Yugoslavia 1857-1950

Summary

Bibliographies of pioneers of “Yugoslav” Oriental Studies include a large number of scientific works and reviews within Arabic, Turkish, Ottoman Turkish, and Iranian Studies, which contribute, not only, to the development of Oriental Studies in Former Yugoslavia Region, but also in Europe. Therefore, this paper presents only modest reminding of hard work that undoubtedly resulted in setting up systematic and institutional studying of Oriental languages and their literature. Content of the papers from this field are unavoidable literature in researching complete cultural heritage of the people of who lived as the subjects of the Ottoman Empire.